2025

FRIDAY, MAY 16, 2025
MORNING CEREMONY, 10:30 A.M.
AFTERNOON CEREMONY, 3:00 P.M.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK

ABOUT THE SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

The Columbia University School of Professional Studies is committed to providing diverse, innovative programs to enable students to succeed in their educational and professional development. Our programs utilize Columbia University's leadership in research and education to deliver flexible traditional and nontraditional programs that meet students where they are in their lives. SPS is dedicated to increasing access to education in order to create a richer and more equitable society.

The School's programs are offered in multiple formats: from online asynchronous degree programs that enable full-time professionals to continue their development to intensive in-person programs that allow students to immerse themselves in their studies. Our programs serve high school students, undergraduate and graduate students, and the University's neighbors at every stage of their personal and professional lives. Our Student Life and co-curricular programs ensure that students are able to access career coaching and development, special events and programs, and a wide array of clubs. The Academic Affairs division mobilizes distinguished practitioner faculty to translate the latest research into practice in order to ensure students are equipped to innovate across sectors.

DEAN'S ADDRESS
TROY J. EGGERS

Troy J. Eggers has served Columbia with great distinction for more than two decades. Since joining the University in 2000, Eggers has excelled in a variety of senior positions within Columbia Business School, the School of International and Public Affairs, and the Office of the Provost. As executive vice provost, he oversaw critical areas of academic management—financial planning, faculty housing, human resources, travel, emergency protocols, and space planning—in addition to oversight of the International Students & Scholars Office; Columbia University Press; The University Seminars; and the Alliance joint-venture among Columbia, École Polytechnique, Sciences Po, and Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne University. Eggers has also served as a member of the University's Emergency Management Operations Team.

Prior to his time in the Office of the Provost, Eggers served as senior associate dean of the School of International and Public Affairs, responsible for all student-related and administrative departments and functions. Before that he spent 10 years at Columbia Business School, where he ran Executive Education, successfully seeing it through the challenges of the 2007–2008 financial crisis, and for a period also served as assistant dean of Executive MBA programs.

In 2020, he joined the School of Professional Studies (SPS) as interim dean before being appointed full-time dean in August 2021. Under his leadership, SPS has grown with the launch of the M.S. in Political Analytics program, the Columbia SPS CUNY Fellowship, and the Career Catalyst Internship Program.

25 ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

FACULTY ADDRESS SIM SEGAL

Sim Segal is the founder of Columbia's M.S. in Enterprise Risk Management program, the No. 1 such program globally, where he serves as program director and senior lecturer-in-discipline. He also serves on the SPS Executive Committee.

Segal is president and founder of SimErgy, a consulting firm specializing in enterprise risk management (ERM). He is a globally recognized ERM thought leader, primarily for his pioneering value-based ERM approach, which has influenced industry and regulatory practices.

Segal is author of Corporate Value of Enterprise Risk Management (Wiley, March 2011), which has been adopted as required reading on the syllabi of the Society of Actuaries (SOA) and leading universities in the U.S., Canada, the U.K., Australia, China, Italy, Croatia, and Egypt.

Segal has authored numerous articles in publications such as Forbes, American Banker, and Corporate Finance Review. He has been quoted as an ERM expert in publications such as The Wall Street Journal and Global Finance.

Segal has also played a leadership role in the actuarial profession, formerly serving in roles such as vice president of the SOA Board of Directors (2009–2011); inaugural chair of the SOA Risk Committee (2009–2011); chief editor of Risk Management magazine (2008–2009); and a lead actuary in Actuarial Foundation's Advancing Student Achievement Program (2004–2006).

Segal is a Fellow of Society of Actuaries (FSA) and a Chartered Enterprise Risk Analyst (CERA).

FACULTY ADDRESS
BASIL A. SMIKLE JR., PH.D.

Basil A. Smikle Jr., Ph.D., is a professor of practice and director of the M.S. in Nonprofit Management program at the School of Professional Studies at Columbia University. His expertise spans a broad spectrum of contemporary issues, including civic engagement, nonprofit advocacy and communications, electoral politics, and education policy. His accolades include citations from the New York State governor and comptroller, and a proclamation from the New York City Council for his commitment to public service and education equity. He regularly shares insights with national media outlets and is an MSNBC political analyst.

Prior to his role at Columbia, Smikle was the distinguished lecturer and director of the Public Policy Program at the Roosevelt House Public Policy Institute at Hunter College. He previously served as the executive director of the New York State Democratic Party, where he was the second-highest-ranking Democrat in the state.

Smikle holds a Ph.D. in politics and education and an M.P.A. from Columbia University, and a B.S. from Cornell University. He sits on the boards of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library, the Center for Charter Excellence, the Opportunity Charter School in Harlem, Oliver Scholars, and the Association to Benefit Children.

STUDENT ADDRESS
ELEANORE LEE TEO

Eleanore Lee Teo is a graduating student from the Executive M.S. in Strategic Communication program at the Columbia University School of Professional Studies. During her time at Columbia, she served as the senior lead for community and digital engagement within the Strategic Communication Society, where she assisted in the development of the Go-To-Market Accelerator Program. The program offers communications students the opportunity to work directly with local start-ups on effective branding strategies and campaigns.

Teo currently serves as the director for marketing and operations at the Caylum Trading Institute, a leading financial firm that specializes in global equities and markets, based in Manila, Philippines. In addition to being a full-time marketing professional, she is the author of the book Raising Heirs, a part-time lecturer for the Communication Management and Entrepreneurship program at Ateneo de Manila University, and a proud, overtime mother of two.

STUDENT ADDRESS
LELANI PACIFIC-JACK

Lelani Pacific-Jack is a native New Yorker and an inaugural Columbia SPS CUNY Fellow in the M.S. in Technology Management program. Leveraging her Baruch College education and international relations background, she bridges global policy perspectives with human-centered tech innovation. Selected as both a Google Product Equity and Inclusion Scholar and one of only 15 Japan-U.S. Friendship Commission Fellows, Pacific-Jack blends her unique diplomatic insight with technical expertise. At Google, she developed frameworks for accessible technology, while her fellowship immersed her in U.S.-Japan policy discussions with senior leaders. At Columbia, she is head of events for the Technology in Business Association and creates forums where industry meets academia. As a mentor for future Columbia SPS CUNY Fellows, she aims to pay forward the opportunities that helped shape her path. Pacific-Jack's approach to technology—whether designing inclusive systems or analyzing cross-cultural applications—is inspired by her close family ties. These personal connections inspire her professional vision of using technology to solve human problems while celebrating our shared humanity.
