Notes

- Students are expected to abide by the Columbia University Health Compact when entering campus.
- Students are expected to conduct themselves in an honest, civil, and respectful manner in all aspects of their lives and are held to the standards and disciplines outlined by Columbia University's Student Conduct and Community Standards: bit.ly/sps_studentconduct
- To reserve a Columbia University library room visit: bit.ly/CU_libraries. Seats may be reserved. Students must reserve seats in libraries for up to two hours per day before they arrive to ensure that they will have a place to study and work.
- Students must be registered for at least one course in order to gain access to Columbia Libraries. Students who are on a leave of absence or withdrawn from the school for a semester will be unable to access libraries as they are not currently matriculated.
- Map of library locations: bit.ly/CU_libmap Columbia University Guide to the Libraries: bit.ly/CU_libguide
- If students are denied access (and the above restrictions have been taken into account), they should email sps-studentservices@columbia.edu with their name, UNI, and the space they were unable to access.
- CUIMC students can make online reservations for individual seats in the Knowledge Center from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Graduate Seminar Room in 302 Philosophy Hall: The room is available to graduate students, seating may be limited with valid CUIDs for student-driven initiatives. The room cannot be booked by admin, faculty, staff, undergrads, or outsiders; the proposed use of the room will be reviewed to make sure the activity fits within the room's policies. Students interested in booking the Seminar Room should visit bit.ly/gradsem_res.

The Law Library is ONLY available to law students during blackout periods. To find out specifics, regarding restricted access, visit bit.ly/CULib_hours
