

Key SPS Departments and University Partners

Name	Description	Contact Information
Office of Student Support SPS Department	The Office of Student Support is committed to promoting academic, personal, and financial well-being through innovative, engaging programs and community building initiatives. They empower students to excel academically and professionally by equipping them with knowledge, resources, and a network of support across the Columbia University community and beyond. They provide services such as the SPS Tutoring Program, academic support workshops, and more. Student Support is also responsible for managing the SPS Academic Resource Center.	Lewisohn Hall, Room 203 Phone: +1 (212)854-9666 Email: sps-studentservices@columbia.edu Learn More
Office of Student Advising SPS Department	Whether you're seeking trusted advice on how to plan your course load and fulfill your requirements, or you'd like to plan the next steps of your career, the Office of Advising at Columbia University's School of Professional Studies is prepared to serve you. Schedule an appointment with your advisor to begin maximizing your time at the School of Professional Studies.	Lewisohn Hall, Room 203 Phone: +1 (212)854-9666 Email: sps-advising@columbia.edu Learn More
Office of Student Wellness SPS Department	The Office of Student Wellness at Columbia University's School of Professional Studies helps students navigate the non-academic challenges they experience. They work to support and assess the safety and well-being of students and the greater campus community through collaborative intervention efforts with multidisciplinary partners. Their goal is to approach student care through a holistic and strength based lens that assists students in providing wellness programming, accessing support resources, and managing critical incidents.	Lewisohn Hall, Room 203 Phone: +1 (212)854-9666 Email: sps-wellness@columbia.edu Learn More
Office of Student Life SPS Department	The Office of Student Life aims to immerse students in professionally-grounded student activities that foster development through community engagement and networking. They ensure students are represented in the SPS Student Government and the Columbia University Senate.	Lewisohn Hall, Room 203 Phone: +1 (212)854-9666 Email: sps-studentlife@columbia.edu Learn More

Click here to learn more.

Key SPS Departments and University Partners

Name	Description	Contact Information
Career Design Lab SPS Department	The Career Design Lab (CDL) empowers SPS students to design and navigate agile, purpose-driven, and meaningful careers in a global and evolving workplace. Their main services include appointments with Career Coaches, Job Opportunities, Employer Events, and Career Skills Workshops.	729 7th Avenue, 3rd Floor. New York, NY 10019 Phone: +1 (212)854-1102 Email: careerdesignlab@columbia.edu Learn More
Columbia Libraries University Partner	Columbia Libraries provides support for SPS students in a variety of ways. You can seek assistance with your research, whether that means getting help finding information for a group project, being recommended the perfect source for presentation infographics, or being coached through the process of gathering and citing sources for an academic research paper.	130 Uris Hall Phone: +1 (212)854-7804 Email: business@library.columbia.edu Learn More
Student Financial Services (SFS) University Partner	Student Financial Services (SFS) helps SPS students with questions relating to their financial student account, bills and payments, and financial wellness. Please click here to see contact information for Federal Work Study (208 Kent Hall), Student Accounts Collections & Receivables / Loans (Stuedbaker, 6th Floor), and other SFS resources.	210 Kent Hall Phone: +1 (212)854-7040 Email: sfs@columbia.edu Learn More
Student Financial Planning (SFP) University Partner	Student Financial Planning (SFP) provides financial aid counseling for Architecture, Arts, Graduate Engineering, and Professional Studies students. They can answer questions about loans, payment options, and financial aid.	210 Kent Hall Phone: +1 (212)854-7040 Email: sfp@columbia.edu Learn More
Student Service Center (SSC) University Partner	The Student Service Center (SSC) helps students with questions about their Student Account, Tuition & Fees, Refunds, and Academic Certifications. For detailed registration, grades and transcript questions, please contact the Office of the Registrar .	210 Kent Hall Phone: +1 (212)854-4400 Email: ssc@columbia.edu Learn More

Click here to learn more.