Strategic use of data and information in management

IKNS Portrait

Whether you are an analyst or CEO – in the private sector, NGO or a nonprofit – you have at your fingertips a deluge of data and fast evolving analytical tools to gather intelligence about your own organization, your partners and competitors, and your customers. But how do you separate the signal from the noise? How do you use both the data and the human talent in your organization to arrive at smarter, more innovative management decisions? Enter Columbia's Master's in Information & Knowledge Strategy (IKNS).

Grounded in the field of Knowledge Management, our interdisciplinary curriculum will provide you with foundations in information science, organizational psychology, and change management as well as practical skills in project management and executive leadership to dramatically increase your impact.

As an IKNS student, you will train under world-class faculty, including former and current executives from Accenture, Google, IBM and NASA. When you graduate, you will join a powerful, global alumni network in coveted positions at organizations such as Alphabet, BCG Digital Ventures, Harvard Business Publishing and The World Bank.

Core Competencies You Will Acquire

Acquire skills that are immediately applicable to your workplace, including how to:

Master the latest trends in Business Analytics and Artificial Intelligence

Design and innovate knowledge-driven digital products

Create and lead collaborative, diverse, high-performing teams

Enhance collaboration inside and outside your organization

Leverage your organization's strategically important intangible assets:

- Accelerate mission-critical knowledge sharing
- Support your organization's knowledge-sharing strategy with the right technology
- Improve productivity by embedding knowledge in smarter business processes
- Turn knowledge into marketable assets

Lead digital transformation and change management

Develop a customer-centric approach to your work

Build human networks that provide support, opportunity, and purpose

World-class Faculty with Deep Industry Experience

Our faculty have held leadership positions at global organizations including these:

Accenture	IBM	The World Bank
Bain & Company	NASA	U.S. Navy
Ernst & Young	Oliver Wyman
Google	Publicis Sapient

Campus Residencies

Our students tailor their IKNS experience to their individual needs – ranging from a mostly online to a mostly on-campus experience. To provide opportunities for networking and community building, all students come together on Columbia's campus for three in-person Residencies during their studies. These multi-day residencies offer curated block-programming to apply theory to practice, and allow for networking opportunities among students, faculty, alumni, and thought leaders.

The Capstone Project

Under the guidance of program faculty, you will apply your skills and knowledge through a group capstone project for a leading for-profit or nonprofit organization.

Sample Capstone

Collaborate with NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center to evaluate NASA Flagship Missions and offer considered strategies for their successful execution. Capstone students will explore what is currently known about Flagship Missions and the challenges they face, recommending methods for improvement and valued outcomes within the context of the future of work. Other examples include Boeing, Nestle, UNDP, Pfizer, Thomson Reuters, Nike, and many more.
